ers and Slug Out a Victory.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., July 1.—The Shee-makers hammered Jenkins and Pritchard hard, and made it two straight from the champions, the score being 7 to 4. The work of both teams was rather ragged at times, and the visitors worked hard to win, but there tors worked hard to win, but here was nothing that could stop such slugging as the home team did. Griffin was hit hard for a pair of runs in the first inning, but the other two runs were the result of wobbles. A feature

Capitol Square Crowds Eager to See Those Prize Fight Returns.

Returns.

The big bulletin board, which runs up two stories on the Bank Street side of The Times-Dispatch Building, gave the crowds in Capitol Square yesterday a closer idea that the fight between Jeffries and Johnson is about to take place. Even the last race between Bryan and Taft did not attract so much attention, possibly for the reason that it was not so uncertain. But there is a degree of uncertainty about this big ring battle, regardless of the assurance on the part of so many that the white man will conquer.

The leased wires running from the ringside at Reno into The Times-Dispatch Building will begin clicking the momentous story Monday afternoon They will bring the story of the fight by rounds; they will keep the thousands in Capitol Square and in Bank Street fully informed as to how the contest is going. An expert, working in a swinging chair, will paste great big bulletins on the board, printed in type large enough to be read yards away. And then there will be a megaphone artist to give some of the points in detail. The whole show will be a show unlike anything ever attempted in Richmong.

Who will worry about a ball game when there are three here every week in Richmong.

Who will worry about a ball game when there are three here every week and when a big fight comes once in a lifetime? That being the case, the Colts may romp to glory or bite the dust again, while the detailed account flashed from Reno will hold popular and public attention. It's a free show, a big show, a great show, and it will be a mighty good show for those with sporting blood who talk fight and who are on edge to get the result long before it is thrown into type.

SUGGS WINS HIS GAME

Pittsburg, Pa., July 1.—Pittsburg lost the game to Cincinnati to-day in the first two innings, when the visitors scored four runs on two hits and four errors. Pittsburg had two chances to go to the front, but the pitching of Suggs was too much for the state of the seen whether he means business or not. In spite of the defeat yesterday, Revelle has the consolation of knowing that the real heavy hitters of the Danyille club did not fatten their averages much on his work. Rickert failed to make a flutter, and Schrader failed to make a riffle except on a rather Suggs was too much for them. The

Two of the hits were directly at-tributable to the diamond. The balls in each case bounded badly and the fielders were unable to handle them. Burke seems to be the best pick-up that the Richmond management has got so far. He actually made a hit yesterday, which is something unusual for the first game, and seems to handle himself in first-class form in the field. He also seems rather leggy when it comes to running bases.

Provided They Get Leave of Absence.

Members of the Norfolk Police Department have issued a challenge to Nows.
the Richmond force to play them two $1.26 games for the police championship of the State, one game to be played here and one in Norfolk.

The challenge will be accepted, provided the baseball team of the local force can get leave of absence to Norfolk, Cape Henry and go to the seaside city and cross bats with their challengers.

with their challengers.

As it is the desire of the Police Commissioners to encourage all forms of athletics among members of the force it is most likely that permission for the visit will be granted. There is much good baseball material on the force. "Pop" Tate is a veteran player of national note, and was once catcher for Boston, in the Atlantic League. He made a batting average which has seldom been beaten, but wore his arm out behind the plate. Few men have lived who could throw to second with the unerring precision that marked "Pop's" work. He will captain the team, if one is sent here from Richmond.

"Chick" Gerring, of the bicycle squad, chiefly famous for the stories he tells—and a double meaning may be accepted—will probably work in the box, and "Chick" says his arm was never in better condition.

"Chick" has been a baseball player, umpirs, life-saver at Palm Beach, Fla, and everything else. He has been in all the ports in the United States and has friends in all.

Other members of the nine who played the mail carriers last year will probably make up the team to go to Norfolk, and if permission is secured from Major Werner and from the commissioners, practice will be begun immediately.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Kenbridge, Va., June 30.—In a hotly contested game of baseball played on the local diamond this afternoon between Kenbridge and South Hill, the game was awarded Kenbridge by the score of 9 to 0. The South Hill team could not be induced to come on the diamond and play the closing half of the eleventh inning, when the score stood 2 to 2.

The game was warmly contested from the start, and Moore brothers, of Warrenton, N. C., as battery for South Hill, were far ahead of the others of the South Hill team. Crafton, as pitcher for Kenbridge, pitched ball that would entitle him to a berth in the State league. Umpires Pritchard, of South Hill, and Bedinger, of Kenbridge.

one careless, apparently, for he slip-ped one over to Griffin which that inaividual patiently desired of all things. He swatted it past Schultz so fast that Schultz didn't see the reason why, and before Titman had gathered it in Griffin was warming the second bag. That wasn't all either. Not by a jugful. Sullivan was to be reckoned with, and Revelle forgot that two extra bag hits coming in combination are likely ning. In one of these innings Titman got as far as third on Irvine's hit, and when Laughlin threw to catch Irvine at second, Titman breezed home with the single, lonesome, but shut-out' saving tally.

Except for the first inning, when the heavy hits were bunched, Revelle was strong enough to win, but Fanwell was just as strong and held throughout the game.
